Campbell Chosen to Chair Financial Services Subcommittee on Monetary Policy and Trade

WASHINGTON – House Financial Services Chairman-elect Jeb Hensarling (R-TX) announced today that Rep. John Campbell (R-CA) will serve as Chairman of the Monetary Policy and Trade Subcommittee in the 113th Congress.

Upon being notified of his selection, Rep. Campbell issued the following statement:

“I am honored to have been chosen by Chairman Hensarling to serve as Chair of the Monetary Policy and Trade Subcommittee. I appreciate the faith he has placed in me, and I look forward to working with all the members of the subcommittee and the full committee on the many critical issues before us in the 113th Congress.”

The Subcommittee on Monetary Policy and Trade will be a new Financial Services subcommittee in the 113th Congress. It was formed through the combination of the existing Subcommittees on Domestic Monetary Policy and Technology and International Monetary Policy and Trade.
